

Well I hope everybody is making it through the winter. As is our custom, the theme of the January meeting is One per Person. This means that any magician attending the meeting must perform one trick. Guess what, we saw a lot of really great magic.

Terry Oberman was up first and he demonstrated 2 phases of Gregory Wilson's Rubicon. Kevin Rhodehouse followed with Daryl's Enchanted Cube. Next, Zach Mandel demonstrated an original card effect he calls You People Found It where two spectators find each other's card. Dave Levitan was next with Steve Valentine's Booked which is a really cool book test with a Pegasus Page kicker.

Bob Lusthaus then performed an item called Cut To a Royal Flush by Peter Duffe. Bob Weinowitz continued this madness when he performed his Six One Hundred Dollar Bill Repeat. Wayne Haarhaus then did a nice sympathetic silk and knot routine that was reminiscent of Paul Potassy. Rich Mancini then performed a nice clock prediction effect using playing cards.

Gary Levenson performed an item called Travel in Mind. Ziggy followed with Further Impact that was published in the final issue Magic Magazine. Harry Mandel was next with Mark Striving's Symbol Logic. Ed Hass then expertly demonstrated Steve Draun's Worldly Things. Steve Goldstein then showed a dice prediction called Badlands Bob. Bill Krupskas followed with a performance of David Regal's Fill in the Blank Transpo.

Josh Kurzban then performed his Signed Bill to Banana routine. Chris Ward then performed Leather Impact by Roy Walton which is the trick on which the trick that Ziggy performed is based. Magic Al Garber then demonstrated that Doc Eason item, All Screwed Up. And everybody's best friend closed things up with a performance of Phil Goldstein's Coupon Caper.

I told you at the start there was a lot of really great magic!
